Grant, Rich, Steve and Greg,

FYI on more recent Wall Arch collapse.....I'm guessing that stress crack finally prevailed from looks of things....just got the email an hour ago and will follow up with park and keep you in the loop of what I learn.

All for now. hoping nobody was underneath it.....

Tim

Holy cow!!

More rock fall from Wall! Jacob had been there on 3/09/10 to document the increase in the cracks and the very next day--BAM!...I am beginning to wonder if he is behaving himself out there!! :- }
